The Future of Rotary is in your hands!

Our September 15th meeting included a change of pace with dinner in town and a program at the USO building about Inyokern History by Liz Babcock. Liz also received the Inyokern Neighbor of the Month award. Thank you all for a low-key night off!

In attendance: Dick, Jim & Tiger, Kim, Alana, Diana, JimD.

Distinguished Visitors: Nancy, Mark, Roger, Barbara, Linda, Michaele and Bob & Alice Campbell.

This week we will be reviewing the Inyokern Centennial schedule and have a planning session of our own. Questions and hopefully some answers from everyone in attendance are highly encouraged.

- 1) How many people will we have on hand on Saturday?
- 2) Where will we be?
- 3) When will we set up?
- 4) When do we draw the winning ticket?
- 5) Help with the general drawing.
- 6) Car show and dash plaques.

Regular visitor Ed Jayne from the Rotary Club of China Lake.

Ed will be giving the invocation at the Inyokern Centennial Dinner on September 25th.
