The Future of Rotary is in your hands!

...And then there were ten!

Our September 8th meeting included the introduction of our new members Sam Schoenhals and Gail Marie Petty. Also in attendance were Alana, Lovee, Tiger, Richard, Diana, Jim & Kim. Absent: Dick

The surprise program was a reading of essays from our Inyokern School writing contest by members of the club, with guest Michael reading the kindergarten essays. The prompt was “what I like about my school.” There were two prizes per class for grades K-12 and the prize was a $25 gift certificate to Red Rock Books in Ridgecrest.

This week we will be attending the Historical Society of the Upper Mojave meeting for a program about the early days of Inyokern.

Regular visitor from China Lake Ed Jayne.

Ed was our 50/50
winner and donated his winnings to the Casa Bernabe orphanage
project.
