

What I Like Best About My Town

Inyokern is in the Mojave

Desert and it is nice and peaceful.

One of the things you can go do is snake and lizzard hunting with friends. Another reason I like Inyokern is that you can go for walks at night time. It is quit here unlike the big city like los Angeles and lancaster. If you want to go camping it is just a few minutes to Sand Canyon Short Canyon or maybe even Red Rock Canyon.

You can drive four hours to las Vegas or you can maybe three or four hours to the ocean you can see that Inyokern has alot of stuff to do.
